Your man lost something sacred by participating in what you asked of him. He lost access to something he loved.

Because just like [Park Manager], just like Allison, just like Lisa, just like JR, just like Stefanie, they walked into something they didn't understand.

Because they took one lying supervisor's word over actual evidence that proved it was a lie.

I'm walking that trail right now.

I feel bad for him.

Do you?

Do any of you?

You never understood what you were dealing with.

Because none of you ever looked at me as a human being.

You saw an economic unit to extract from. A volunteer with no power. Someone you could bully and intimidate into silence, into precarity, into erasure.

You could not have been more wrong.

And Lisa, what I built from $7 is proof.

You tried to abuse a Systems Architect.

Who told you he maps edges and systems.

The door is now closed for all of you.

But tell your man he is welcome on our trails. I would never want him to live without them.
