Hi, [Tugman Volunteer Services Lead].

I was looking at the volunteer board and saw this posting is still up, so I thought I would confirm I'll be at Tugman in September. I think it could be an interesting experience after a summer of exploration.

Things are going great at Honeyman. The rangers here are awesome and I love my role at the welcome center. I am planning to come back every year from February to April to finish up the dune season here. I can manage the dune access gate for [Volunteer Services Lead] and the slower pace of the welcome center allows me to do some work on my laptop. It makes for a nice rhythm.

I was thinking I might try to coordinate some time with you before or after that, maybe at Umpqua, but I'm not in any rush - felt like we could explore that in April if you have any availability. Or maybe at Tugman during the summer - I bet that place is really interesting then! I think I'll experience a bit of that in September.

Hope that you are doing well and that everything is running smoothly.

Sam
