[Program Manager],
This is to inform you that the audio recording of the March 5, 2025 meeting between myself, [Park Manager], and [Park Supervisor] has now been published as part of a permanent digital archive.
The page includes a clear legal rationale for publication, a full index of key moments, and contextual documentation of the coercive treatment I received while volunteering under your agency's leadership.
This is not a request for comment.
This is not a plea for reconciliation.
It is the continuation of the record — the one you've been invited to engage with for months, and repeatedly declined.
If you choose to listen to this recording, I believe it may offer clarity.
Not defensiveness. Not counter-narrative.
But reflection.

I am making no claims that cannot be backed by evidence.
And I am not disappearing.
