RE PR27478; the records that carry the characterizations

TESTIMONY v1.11

I am a man who keeps records.

September 3 was the closest thing to integrity I have had from a state agency.¹ It had a limit, but inside that limit it was real. You released the entire chain. You gave my archive the proof.

What you withheld is where the characterizations live, and that is the part that concerns me. The body-worn camera video of the March 24 contact. “OSP Hasty Form Robert White.pdf,” the plan for that visit. “WHITE,ROBERT SAMUEL DMV.pdf” and “ReportRobertWhite.pdf.” The text messages among the people who arranged it. The calls the produced emails set up. Your own production names or shows every one of them, and none of them came with it.²

I want them beside what you already gave me, so the characterizations can be read against the evidence.

An email left an OPRD emergency manager on March 3 and a threat assessment was requested the next morning.¹ That is how fast this moved. Your department was sold a narrative wholesale and went with it, while your own people were writing something else down as they looked. On March 6, after reviewing my website, Detective Hyde reported: “Based on the website nothing is standing out to me more than what Parks and Rec sent you. Sounds like this person does have a grievance with the former employer.”¹ Seventeen days later the dispatch event still opened on me as “Suspect.”¹

The matter was closed appropriately. On April 15 Detective Nelson wrote that “there is no evidence White has committed any crimes.”¹ What is left behind is the characterization, and it is the kind your department would not accept if I had written it about one of your officers.

A man who keeps records does not leave that to stand.

I served the tort claim notice to preserve rights, not because I want a legal dispute.³

For each record above: produce it, cite the exemption, or state in writing that it does not exist. It is the same thing I asked on September 3.

Respectfully,

Robert Samuel White
